Title I Parents' Party

On February 13 at 2:30 in the art room we will have a parent meeting where you will be treated to a Valentine party cake, ice cream, and chips. With your child, you will have the opportunity to put together an alligator valentine box and decorate cupcakes. With the gift of stuffed animals for your child, we will sing a song together and act out a story too. Come let us celebrate you and your child's importance!

Free Stuffed Animals and Cool Bingo Prizes for the Little Ones at the New Beginnings Title I Meeting

New Beginnings will meet at 2:30 in the art room on February 10. Each child will get two stuffed animals to help act out the story of We Are In A Book. We will play color bingo for cool prizes and let the children play Dance, Dance, Revolution on the Wii metal dance platforms. We will also put together a picket fence picture frame holding a picture of you and your child. You and your child will also have the opportunity to put together an alligator valentine box. Come make beautiful memories and have fun!
